

KETUL SHAH

Author of The Unshaken Self: Key Lessons from the Gita for a Life Without Doubt, Worry, and Fear

Short Bio (60 words)

KETUL SHAH is a spiritual researcher, counselor, and writer who spent two decades in the IT industry while studying the Bhagavad Gita as a practical manual for the mind. He is the author of The Unshaken Self, which translates the Gita's 18 chapters into modern mental models for stress, focus, and resilience.

Short Bio (150 words)

KETUL SHAH bridges the high-stakes reality of the modern corporate world with the depths of ancient spiritual wisdom. For the past twenty years, he has built a successful career in the Information Technology industry, while spending years studying the Bhagavad Gita and Vedic psychology, decoding its verses into practical, everyday keys for a calm and focused mind. He is the author of The Unshaken Self: Key Lessons from the Gita for a Life Without Doubt, Worry, and Fear, releasing September 4, 2026 (Krishna Janmashtami). Beyond his spiritual studies, Ketul is a dedicated musician who plays more than twelve instruments, and an award-winning culinary innovator recognized with the "Hyper Budding Chef" and "Creative Chef" awards. He speaks and writes on bringing Vedic psychology into high-pressure professional life.

Full Biography

KETUL SHAH bridges the high-stakes reality of the modern corporate world with the profound, quiet depths of ancient spiritual wisdom. For the past twenty years, he has built a highly successful career in the fast-paced, demanding Information Technology (IT) industry. Those who cross his path quickly recognise that his most defining achievement is not his extensive professional resume, but the unshakeable inner peace he maintains amidst the constant pressures of corporate life. He is the living embodiment of the principles shared in The Unshaken Self — a modern professional navigating the complexities of the world with a calm, worry-free mind.

Beyond the boardroom, Ketul is a dedicated student of life and a passionate explorer of Sanatan history. He has spent years diving deeply into the timeless teachings of the Bhagavad Gita, seeking to decode its ancient verses into practical, everyday keys for human happiness. For Ketul, the Gita is not merely a philosophical or historical text; it is a vital, living manual for understanding the immense power of the human mind. By actively applying these foundational principles to his own life, he has mastered the art of fine-tuning his consciousness to live free of tension — a state of being he passionately believes is accessible to everyone.

This pursuit of harmony extends far beyond his spiritual studies into a rich, vibrant creative life. Ketul is an accomplished polymath with a profound love for the arts. He is a dedicated musician who explores a multitude of genres and plays more than twelve different instruments, finding deep joy and presence in creating and regenerating music.

This same creative devotion is mirrored in his culinary arts. In the kitchen, Ketul is an award-winning innovator, celebrated for his unique fusion cuisines and his ability to balance complex flavours. His culinary artistry has earned him prestigious accolades, including the “Hyper Budding Chef” and “Creative Chef” awards. Whether he is tuning an instrument or crafting a new dish, he approaches his passions with the same total presence and devotion that he applies to his spiritual life.

At the very core of Ketul's existence is a philosophy of total surrender and trust. He navigates his journey by simply moving with the flow of life, accepting whatever the universe presents without doubt, question, or anxiety. He holds a quiet, unbreakable belief that the universe is inherently benevolent — always working in his favour and constantly guiding him closer to the manifestation of his deepest desires and dreams.

Professional Timeline

2017 — Vedic Foundations: Began deep scholarly study of the Prasthanatrayi (Upanishads, Brahma Sutras, and Bhagavad Gita) under traditional Sanskrit tutors in India.

2019 — Synthesis of Therapy & Wisdom: Founded a private counseling practice, integrating Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) frameworks with Eastern mindfulness and Karma Yoga approaches.

2021 — The Book Concept: Started structuring drafts for The Unshaken Self, conducting qualitative interviews with over 200 corporate executives suffering from severe work fatigue.

2024 — Researching the Book: Dedicated the year to deep scriptural research, cross-referencing Vedic psychology elements and structuring the core chapters.

2026 — Launch of The Unshaken Self: Finalized publishers and designed global launch operations targeting Krishna Janmashtami 2026.

Media Contact

Email: ketu001in@gmail.com